Vice
May 3

Based on the True Story You Were Never Supposed to Know. The Untold True Story That Changed the Course of History. The story of Dick Cheney, an unassuming bureaucratic Washington insider, who quietly wielded immense power as Vice President to George W. Bush, reshaping the country and the globe in ways that we still feel today. Written and directed by Adam McKay.

Second Act
May 10

Her talent was real. Her resume was not. Dream big. The only thing stopping you is you. A big box store worker reinvents her life and her life-story and shows Madison Avenue what street smarts can do. Directed by Peter Segal.

The Mule
May 17

Earl Stone, a man in his 80's who is broke, alone, and facing foreclosure of his business when he is offered a job that simply requires him to drive. Easy enough, but, unbeknownst to Earl, he's just signed on as a drug courier for a Mexican cartel. He does well and it's uncertain if he'll have time to right those wrongs before law enforcement, or the cartel's enforcers, catch up to him. Inspired by a true story and directed by Clint Eastwood.

Arctic
May 24

Survival is its own Journey. A man stranded in the Arctic after an airplane crash must decide whether to remain in the relative safety of his makeshift camp or to embark on a deadly trek through the unknown. Director: Joe Penna.

A Dog's Way Home
May 31

A lot can happen between lost and found. From the Beloved Best Selling Author of A Dog's Purpose

There are some bonds no distance can break. A female dog travels four hundred miles in search of her owner throughout a Colorado wilderness. Directed by Charles Martin Smith.
Born in Brooklyn, Jamie has brought her tremendous gift for entertaining to South Florida. She studied communications at Hofstra and acting at Lee Strasberg Studios in the Village. Jamie was able to sing before she could talk; but it’s the gift of song that has propelled her through life as a mainstay on Cruise Ships and all the big rooms throughout the tri-county area in New York, New Jersey and the Connecticut. And now, Jamie performs her "one woman show" throughout Florida!

Jamie’s gift for live entertainment will have you laughing, crying and begging for more. She is that one-of-a-kind performer that people adore. Singer/Impressionist/Comic!!!

James Perkowski, a popular tenor here in South Florida, has appeared multiple times abroad – most recently in London, and to sold out audiences in Sweden and Finland. He has performed his one-man show “The 11 O’Clock Spots” on Windstar and Seabourn cruise lines. James has shared the stage with Barbara Cook at The Broward Center, Toni Braxton at the Flamingo in Las Vegas, and Patti LaBelle for AIDS Walk South Florida, and is featured on Deanne Martin’s (Dean’s daughter) CD “Memories Are Made of These”. James’s first CD was entitled “To Broadway and Beyond” and includes the Irving Berlin hit, “There’s No Business Like Show Business”. You can buy it on Itunes!

From opera to Broadway to popular music, few people can sing like James. In addition to his finely tuned voice, James possesses an endearing presence and a sense of humor onstage.
Iris Revson has performed on Broadway in several shows including: “The Pirates of Penzance”, “Merlin: The Magical Musical”, and “Evita”.

She has also performed at some of the most prestigious venues in the country: Radio City Music Hall, Madison Square Garden, and The Kennedy Center in Washington, DC.

Iris is a classic "Broadway Belter" with a vibrant personality. You will cheer for her as she melts your heart with her incredible voice and makes you giggle with her many charms. She is "one of a kind"!

Carl Guerra (like Dare uh: but with a G) honed his comedy in New York at the various comedy venues like Dangerfields', The Improv, and Caroline's. He has been able to maintain a high standard of comedy without the use of profanity or sophomoric material. A graduate of Cornell University, Carl set his sights on comedy like his predecessor and fellow alumnus Bill Maher. After spending all hours on "Open Mics", following the likes of Jerry Seinfeld, Sinbad, Rosie O'Donnell et al., Carl moved back to Miami to focus his eyes on making a living at comedy. His choice of venue proved to be lucrative. Carl has traveled all over the world while getting paid to tell jokes.

Tickets are now on sale at the LOD Office during office hours 9:00 am - 4:30 pm. Tickets may also be purchased on show nights.

Box office opens at 7:00 pm the night of the show.
